Re: New Jersey Lawyers' Fund for Client
Protection v. Kenneth Irek;
J-082161; CPF-520

Dear Mr. Irek:

This will confirm our conversation this afternoon regarding repayment of your debt in the above captioned matter. As we discussed, the Fund's Trustees review all proposals for repayment in light of the respondent's current financial condition. Accordingly, I would ask that you complete the enclosed Information Subpoena and return it with your reimbursement proposal. The Trustees will then have a more informed perspective from which to evaluate your proposal. If possible, please try to return the completed subpoena and proposal by December 18, 1995, so that it may be considered by the Trustees at their December meeting, scheduled for December 20, 1995.

Please do not hesitate to contact me if you have any further questions. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Very truly yours, attached questions within the time required, the opposing party may ask the court to conduct a hearing in order to determine if you should be held in contempt. You will be compelled to appear at the hearing and explain your reasons for your failure to answer.

If this judgment has resulted from a default you may have the right to have this default judgment vacated by making an appropriate motion to the court. Contact any attorney or the clerk of the court for information on making such a motion. Even if you dispute the judgment you must answer all 17 of the attached questions.

You must answer each question giving complete answers, attaching additional pages if necessary. False or misleading answers may subject you to punishment by the court. However, you need not provide information concerning the income and assets of others living in your household unless you have a financial interest in the assets or income. Be sure to sign and date your answers and return them to the address in the upper left hand corner within 14 days.
