Re: Szathmary v. Irek
CPF-520:1-93

Dear Mr. Irek

You have previously received a copy of the referenced claim. At the time we forwarded it to you the Fund lacked jurisdiction to consider making an award to the claimant due to the fact that you had not been disciplined.

Recent action by the Supreme Court in your case has conferred jurisdiction upon the Fund to consider claims against you. This the Board of Trustees will seek to do in an expeditious manner. Therefore, it is extremely important that you respond to this claim, in writing, within fourteen (14) days of the date of this letter. Should you not respond an inference may be available that there is no defense to assert. The Trustees wish all available facts to be before them when they decide this claim. Should an award be made, the Fund will take an assignment of the claimant's rights and seek to recover the money from you.

Please advise.

Very truly yours,
